

Eamonn Joseph Wall, CPA, CA

---

KPMG

Senior Manager – Deal Advisory (Toronto, ON)

January 2015 - Present

- Provided buy-side and sell-side advisory services to private equity, pension fund, and corporate entities through performing financial due diligence to assist with the evaluation of potential acquisition and divestiture activities
- Financial due diligence performed over key components of the income statement included of quality of earnings analysis to understand the sustainability, controllability, and predictability of underlying earnings, analysis to understand the cash flow characteristics of the asset in question, understanding management's use of judgments, accounting policies, and accounting estimates, analysis to assess the achievability of forecasts including key risks and sensitivities and the potential impact on future performance, market and competitor analysis, and preparing summary qualitative and quantitative business overviews
- Financial due diligence performed over components of the balance sheet included assessing working capital requirements, seasonality and historical trends in working capital, use of debt facilities and associated debt covenants, net debt, debt and debt like items, commitments, contingencies and unrecorded liabilities, capital assets, and balance sheet risk analysis
- Presented findings from financial due diligence in data books, detailed presentations, and executive summaries for use by potential investors, potential creditors, lawyers, investment bankers, Boards of Directors, and executive committees to support both financial and strategic investors throughout competitive, friendly, and prospective transaction processes
- Managed post-merger integration activities through working with executives of private equity owned, pension fund portfolio companies, and corporate entities, to increase value realized from transactions through managing integration activities that included the realization and measurement of synergies, and consolidation of organizational structures, business processes, corporate assets, material contracts, and technology, while also managing integration cost budgets
- Assisted corporate, private equity owned, and pension fund portfolio companies with the divestiture of strategic assets and divisions through managing separation activities that included drafting of schedules to Transition Service Agreements, splitting of organizational structures, business processes, corporate assets, contracts, and technology, while also tracking costs and dis-synergies to support the divestment of a division of a company, or specific assets, being prepared for sale
- Consistently rated as a top performer, received performance ratings stating 'Highly Effective Performer'

PricewaterhouseCoopers

Senior Associate – Audit and Assurance Group (Toronto, ON)

September 2011 – December 2014

- Performed audit of Toronto Stock Exchange and Toronto Venture Stock Exchange listed entities, as well as privately held companies, with a focus on mining clients both in the production and pre-production stages of the mining cycle
- Assessed accounting treatment of financial statement line items in accordance with guidance prescribed by International Financial Reporting Standards, and Canadian Generally Accepted Accounting Standards
- Performed substantive audit procedures, and tested the operating effectiveness of controls and control processes used in the preparation of financial information, to assist with audit opinions issued in accordance with Canadian Auditing Standards
- Led the execution of assurance engagements through managing junior staff, communicating with assurance Partners and Managers, and coordinating with key client personnel including CFOs, VPs, and Controllers to meet client deadlines

- Selected to be lead Senior Associate on international Risk Assurance Engagement in Kyrgyzstan (Central Asia) – Led one month engagement for Toronto based client to assess compliance with Canadian Controls Certification Reporting through working with senior management, managing junior staff, and undertaking one week visit to gold mine in Kyrgyz mountains
- Asked to be mentor for four students writing Chartered Accountancy exams, all mentees were successful on first attempt
- Consistently rated as a top performer, received performance ratings stating 'Exceeded Expectations'

McMaster University

May – August
2010

Research Assistant (Hamilton, ON)

- Researched the economic impact of chronic neuropathic pain and wrote an academic manuscript discussing findings
- Identified direct and indirect costs created by chronic pain on both micro- and macro-economic levels and ways to reduce such costs, evaluated the cost-effectiveness of pain treatments and ways to improve patient care, presented results to basic scientist and successfully submitted manuscript for publication in a medical journal
- Publication: Henry James L., Annette Wilkins, Elizabeth Uleryk, Eamonn J. Wall, and Cristina Mattison. A Scoping Study of the Economic Impact of Chronic Pain. Canadian Institutes for Health Research

Halton Healthcare Services

May – August
2010

Finance Summer Intern (Oakville, ON)

- Analyzed income statement, statement of retained earnings, and historical patient data to project combined accommodation revenues for fiscal year of Georgetown Hospital, Milton Hospital, and Oakville-Trafalgar Memorial Hospital, and presented results to VP of Finance, Director of Finance, and Senior Management
- Modeled income through calculating maximum potential hospital revenue for fiscal year and then reducing revenue based on estimates of room occupancy, insurance coverage, and billable patient days

EDUCATION

---

Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants
CFA Institute

September 2011 – Present
December 2016

McGill University

September 2007 – April 2011

LEADERSHIP, VOLUNTEER & OTHER

---

- Ted Reeve Hockey And Skating School: Volunteer Hockey and Skating Instructor
- PricewaterhouseCoopers: 'PwC Take the Lead' Leadership Conference, Daily Bread Food Bank
- McGill University: Accounting Society, Pre-Law Society, Management Undergraduate Society
- Royal Life Saving Society: Bronze Medallion, Bronze Cross, Standard First Aid with CPR "C"
- YMCA John Island Camp: Leadership Training Program on 37-day canoe trip to Hudson's Bay
- Malvern Collegiate Institute: Member of varsity high school field lacrosse and football teams